MARKS PUBLISHED FOR OPPOSITION

The following marks are published in compliance with section 12(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946. Applications for the registration of marks in more than one class have been filed as provided in section 30 of said act as amended by Public Law 772, 87th Congress, approved Oct. 9, 1962, 76 Stat. 769. Opposition under section 13 may be filed within thirty days of the date of this publication. See Rules 2.101 to 2.105.

A separate fee of twenty-five dollars for opposing each mark in each class must accompany the opposition.

SECTION 1.—INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sept. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on and after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of June 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).

SN 146,009. West Penn Wire Corp., Washington, Pa. Filed Oct. 25, 1977.

The mark consists of highly stylized letters which are only vaguely formed to form a "W," "P" and a "W." Each of the "W's" has only two thirds of the "W" showing and a pair of rectangles extend from the top of each W. The P has a symbolic representation of a bolt of light with an arrow head at one end pointing downwardly. The mark as a whole appears only as an artistic design rather than as a group of partially formed highly stylized letters.

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation "U.S. Cl." appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sept. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on and after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of June 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).
